

Statement from Europcar Mobility Group

June 24, 2020

PARIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 24, 2020-- Regulatory News:

On 3 May, Europcar Mobility Group (Paris:EUCAR) announced that it had secured new financing facilities guaranteed by the French and the Spanish States to ensure liquidity facing the current COVID-19 crisis and prepare operations to restart.

In light of recent rumors, the Group reminds that it stated on 3 May that - given the market uncertainties post COVID-19 sanitary crisis - it would actively continue its efforts to streamline its costs base and at the same time, consider the adaptation of its capital and debt structure to the evolutions of the business environment.

The company has started to work on this adaptation and, among the various possible options, may entertain contacts. There are no certainties about the different associated options.
